Agenda

1) Welcome - As a check in today please read these 3 quotes that we will discuss with questions pasted in the chat in smaller break out groups.

“When the whole world is silent, even one voice becomes powerful.” - Malala Yousafzai

“Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced.” James Baldwin

"Action is the antidote to despair." – Joan Baez

2) Guest speaker:

Katherine Seibel, MSSW, (she/her) is a Policy & Advocacy Associate at Committee for Children. She received her MSSW in public policy from Columbia University and her career has included working on local, multi-state, and federal policy and advocacy efforts on mental health, social-emotional learning, child sexual abuse prevention, and bullying prevention. Katherine has also served as a teaching associate at Columbia University’s School of Social Work and has previous experience in direct service where she specialized in facilitating DBT Mindfulness and trauma-informed yoga groups.

TOPIC:

Katherine will share top takeaways and policy opportunities to advance SEL in our state from the New Mexico state policy landscape. Committee for Children is a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering the safety and well-being of children through social-emotional learning and development – across the states and with Congress we advocate SEL, child sexual abuse prevention, and bullying prevention.

- 3) Follow up questions and discussion
- 4) Optimistic Closing
- 5) Short Survey to help plan future events.
