

Family Engagement in Early Literacy (FEEL)

Exciting new ways of building positive relationships and memories with young children

We welcome all families currently engaged in Home Visiting across New Mexico

Attend virtual sessions where, together we will:

- ✓ Explore why early literacy is important in the lives of young children and their families
- ✓ Provide families with strategies to expand emergent literacy habits within routines and environments
- ✓ Connect families with tools and community resources that promote early literacy

No cost, fun incentives, certificates
