

NAVAJO PROJECT I-LAUNCH PRESENTS:

POSITIVE DINÉ PARENTING CLASSES

Registration is FREE and will open 30 days before start of cohort. Will close a week before start date.

Positive Diné Parenting (PDP) infuses the cultural strengths of Indigenous childrearing practices and blends traditional Diné values with present-day skills. The curriculum includes 8 lessons that cover traditional parenting techniques that help strengthen family relationships. A certificate of completion is presented to those who successfully complete the classes.

COHORT 1

January 23 - February 15, 2024

Every Tuesday & Thursday
1:00 PM - 3:00 PM MDT

VIRTUAL COHORT

This cohort will be offered virtually and open to Diné parents and caregivers that live on and/or off the Navajo Nation. The cohort will feature guest presenters that cover topics on traditional childrearing practices and traditional parenting techniques.

COHORT 2

April 24 - 25, 2024

Wednesday & Thursday
9:00 AM - 3:00 PM MDT
Window Rock, Arizona

IN-PERSON COHORT

The two-day in-person class will be held in Window Rock, AZ (Location TBD). The cohort is open to parents and caregivers on the Navajo Nation and surrounding areas. Light refreshments will be provided.

COHORT 3

July 11 - 12, 2024

Thursday & Friday
9:00 AM - 3:00 PM MDT
Gallup, New Mexico

IN-PERSON COHORT

The two-day in-person class will be held in Gallup, NM (Location TBD). The cohort is open to parents and caregivers on the Navajo Nation and surrounding areas. Light refreshments will be provided.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Phone: (928) 871-6338
Email: projectlaunch@nndode.org

SCAN OR CLICK TO REGISTER:

